Giving Thanks for Your Help in Feeding the Hungry – During the 2023 Thanksgiving Drive, over $700 and many, many bags of food were collected for St. Michael's Food Pantry. Pantry manager, Nilda Tirado, writes, "At the food pantry we are so blessed to have so much support from St. Josaphat's parishioners. Many asylum families are being sent to our food pantry. They are coming from different countries (Venezuela, Honduras, Ukraine, Poland, Russia, China, Columbia, Peru and even several countries in Africa). Many do not speak English and most have children. So, our food pantry is very busy!! We are so grateful for everything that St. Josaphat's parishioners do. They make our mission possible." THANK YOU, dear Parishioners!
